I. QUALIFICATIONS

1. I am a Certified Public Accountant since 1975, licensed in California, New York, and Pennsylvania and an Accredited Senior Appraiser. I also hold accreditations in Business Valuation and Certified Financial Forensics from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. I have more than forty years of experience in accounting, valuation, solvency analysis, and related financial issues.
2. I am a Managing Director in the Disputes and Investigations practice of Navigant Consulting, where I perform damage and accounting analyses, conduct solvency analyses, and perform valuations of business interests and intangible assets.
3. Before joining Navigant in May 2008, I was a Principal in Chicago Partners, LLC. Before that I held senior positions in other consulting companies including LECG, LLC, Arthur Andersen, LLP, Noell Deetz, Agnew, and Morse LLP, and Stoughton Davidson, starting in 1972.
4. In my forty-plus years of experience as an auditor, tax practitioner, financial and valuation consultant, and expert witness, I have developed extensive experience in the issues that are the subject of my opinions, including analysis of financial performance and valuation of companies and individuals in professional sports.
5. My qualifications are disclosed in more detail in my resume, which is attached as Appendix I.

II. BACKGROUND

6. Plaintiff Golden Boy Promotions, LLC is a California limited liability company. Plaintiff Golden Boy Promotions, Inc. is a California corporation. Together they are called “Golden Boy.”¹
7. Defendant Alan Haymon owns Alan Haymon Development, Inc., Haymon Sports, LLC, Haymon Holdings, LLC (f/k/a KO Holdings, LLC, f/k/a Haymon Sports, LLC), Haymon Boxing LLC and Haymon Boxing Management LLC,² together referred to throughout this report as “Haymon”.
8. As disclosed in Golden Boy’s audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014, the nature of Golden Boy’s operations were described as follows:

“The Company is primarily in the business of promoting professional boxers and arranging, staging, marketing, and otherwise exploiting boxing events and related activities.”³

9. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] The relationship between Golden Boy and the broadcast media (HBO, Showtime, FOX, among others), and Golden Boy’s ability to promote successful events requires, among other things, championship caliber boxers⁵ and network timeslot availability.⁶ The requirement for these two fundamental inputs for success is described by Golden Boy’s Industry Expert, Gary Shaw (“Shaw”), as “product” and “platform.”
10. From December 2014 through January 2016, Haymon was using the [REDACTED] received from Media Group Holdings (“MGH”) for “Television Costs”, “Fighter Costs”, and “On-air Broadcast Fees.”⁷
11. During 2015, certain of the network and cable broadcasters of the professional boxing matches entered into exclusive contracts with Haymon.⁸

⁵ On September 6, 2016 Robert Kneuper, PhD issued his Expert Report in this matter (“Kneuper Report”). As defined in the Kneuper Report, the base criteria for championship caliber boxers are those with a US based manager or promoter, as well as a television appearance within the preceding eighteen months and a current period top ten ranking in any of the fourteen weight classes, additionally including any former televised world champions within the last eighteen months.

[REDACTED].⁹

13. Issued on September 6, 2016, the Kneuper Report concludes that Haymon has reached a position of market power through “tying” and other exclusionary practices.¹⁰

a. In summary, the Kneuper Report opines that¹¹:

- i. Haymon has market power in the US market for managing championship caliber boxers and in the US market for promoting championship caliber boxers.
- ii. Haymon’s anticompetitive actions have allowed it to lock up key inputs essential to effectively compete as a promoter, including championship caliber boxers and key broadcasters.
- iii. Haymon’s anticompetitive actions have injured key competing boxing promoters, including Golden Boy.
- iv. Haymon’s anticompetitive actions have also harmed, and are likely to harm, non-Haymon championship caliber boxers.

¹⁰ Second Amended Complaint at ¶15. See also, 15 U.S.C. § 6308(b).

¹¹ Kneuper Report.

III. SCOPE OF ENGAGEMENT

14. I have been asked by counsel for the Plaintiff, Golden Boy, to review and analyze financial data and documents related to the above-referenced litigation and to provide my expert opinions regarding damages, if any, suffered by Golden Boy as a result of Haymon's alleged anticompetitive practices in the boxing industry.
15. In addition to the financial data and documents, I have also reviewed the various filings in this matter, including Plaintiffs' complaints, Defendants' answer, and interrogatories, as well as the Kneuper and Shaw Reports. Appendix II contains a list of materials I considered.
16. My opinions are based on the facts of this case as I now understand them and the analyses described in this report. My work on this case is continuing and I reserve the right to revise or augment the findings and opinions set forth here in the event that additional information relevant to the issues I examined becomes available, in response to questions raised in my deposition, to take into account or reply to analyses offered by experts retained by Defendants, or for other reasons.
17. Navigant is charging an hourly rate of $750 for my time. Other Navigant personnel working under my direction assisted in my analyses. Navigant personnel are being compensated for their work at customary rates. This compensation is not contingent upon the substance of my testimony, my report, or the outcome of this matter.

IV. SUMMARY OF OPINIONS

18. I am relying on the opinions in the Kneuper Report and the Shaw Report, which conclude that Haymon is functioning as both a promoter of professional boxing matches and a manager of professional boxers.¹² I am further relying on the Kneuper Report's conclusions regarding the nature of the anticompetitive harm from Haymon's actions.¹³ In performing my damages analyses, I assume antitrust liability.
19. Golden Boy's financial condition, measured by income from boxing operations, deteriorated from the end of 2014 through June 2016.
20. In 2015 and 2016, Golden Boy experienced a decline in the number of Golden Boy promoted championship caliber broadcast television events and associated revenues, and a decline in the number of championship caliber boxers on televised events.
21. From the end of 2014 through January 2016, Haymon spent a significant portion of the $ [REDACTED] received from MGH on "Television Costs," "Fighter Costs," and "On-air Broadcast Fees."
22. I have evaluated Golden Boy's damages based on the hypothetical but-for analysis where Haymon only acts as a manager. Comparing that hypothetical scenario to the opinions as presented to me by the Kneuper and Shaw Reports, and assuming Haymon continues to block access to television broadcasters and fighters, Golden Boy's lost profits attributable to Haymon's alleged anticompetitive practices, measured by the decline in Golden Boy's income from boxing operations, are estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. In the event that Haymon is forced to, either by court order or by market forces, or otherwise voluntarily lifts restrictions on boxers and television networks, such that Golden Boy is able to begin recovering, Golden Boy's lost profits are estimated to be in a range of $ [REDACTED].¹⁴

¹⁴ The above damaged calculations incorporate a general negative industry growth rate assumption, taken from Integra Industry Growth Outlook Report 197.3 7941 PROFESSIONAL SPORTS CLUBS AND PROMOTERS. In Exhibit 5, in calculating the Net Damages, I have assumed the growth rates indicated from the Integra Industry Growth Outlook Report. I have selected these growth rates because they are the closest reported to the boxing industry. However, based on my work in this matter, I believe it is unlikely that the boxing industry will suffer these negative growth rates. Estimating damages using a conservative 2% long-term growth rate would increase the Scenario 2 Net Damages to $ [REDACTED], the Scenario 3 Net Damages to $ [REDACTED] and the Scenario 4 Net Damages to $ [REDACTED].

23. I have considered and rejected as highly unlikely the hypothetical but-for analysis where Haymon acts only as a promoter.

24. I have provided a detailed analysis and discussion of each of these summary opinions in the section below.

V. DETAILED ANALYSIS

A. Golden Boy's financial condition deteriorated from the end of 2014 through June 2016.

25. Golden Boy's financial condition, as evidenced by boxing revenues and boxing net income from operations, deteriorated from the end of 2014 through June 2016.

26. From 2012 through 2014, Golden Boy's operations generated revenues and income from operations, as shown in the chart below.

27. During the period 2012 through 2014, there was an offer for Golden Boy in the amount of [REDACTED] from MGH (or designee). Although the transaction did not close, it is an indication of the significant value then attributed to Golden Boy.

28. Also, during 2013 Golden Boy promoted a significant championship caliber boxing match between Canelo Alvarez and Floyd Mayweather. This event, promoted by Golden Boy, resulted in $[REDACTED] of revenue and [REDACTED] net income from operations, and demonstrates the financial power of the highest level of championship caliber professional boxing.¹⁶

29. Considering 2013, even without the benefit of this significant boxing event, Golden Boy still generated significant revenues and net income from operations from its other promoted events. Additionally, the

¹⁶ [REDACTED]

2014 total revenues of $ [REDACTED] show overall improvement when compared to 2012 and adjusted 2013 total revenues.

30. In contrast, the chart below shows Golden Boy's declining boxing revenues and income from boxing operations for 2015, and through June 30, 2016.

31. The above depicted dramatic decline in the financial performance of Golden Boy goes way beyond any market or industrywide downturn.¹⁷ Golden Boy's decline in financial performance, which I analyze in further detail below, does correspond with the type and timing of alleged Haymon anticompetitive business practices, also analyzed further below.

B. In 2015 and 2016 Golden Boy experienced a decline in the number of Golden Boy promoted championship caliber broadcast television events and associated revenues, and a decline in the number of championship caliber boxers on televised events.

32. As described further below, beginning late in 2014 and continuing through January 2016, Haymon spent significant amounts on "Television Costs," "Fighter Costs," and "On-air Broadcast Fees." See Exhibit 2.

¹⁷ Industry forecasted growth data is presented in a table at the bottom of Exhibit 5. I have considered this data in my damage calculations reflected in Exhibit 5. See also, 197.3 7941 PROFESSIONAL, SPORTS CLUBS AND PROMOTERS - SIC Code Description: "Establishments primarily engaged in operating and promoting professional and semiprofessional athletic clubs; promoting athletic events, including amateur, and managing individual professional athletes. Stadiums and athletic fields are included only if the operator is actually engaged in the promotion of athletic events. Establishments primarily engaged in operating stadiums and athletic fields are classified in Real Estate, Industry Group 651. Amateur sports and athletic clubs are classified in Industry Group 799."

33. During this same time period, Haymon entered into exclusive media contracts with CBS, ESPN, FOX, and NBC, and entered into a high volume event agreement with Spike TV. [REDACTED]

35. In Exhibits 1 and 3, I present my period-over-period analyses from 2014 through June 30, 2016, including the TV revenues and related events, as well as the boxers in these events, noting boxers of championship caliber. The analyses summarized in this exhibit show declines in Golden Boy's TV revenue, total revenue, and income from boxing operations, consistent with the anticompetitive impact of Haymon's business practices.¹⁹
36. In Appendix V, I have done a separate analysis of Golden Boy's contracts with broadcast networks. That analysis reveals that as Haymon began signing contracts with network broadcasters, Golden Boy's network contracts were not renewed on terms previously acceptable to the networks.²⁰
37. The continuous and dramatic decline of Golden Boy's on-air events and revenues is occurring at the same time as Haymon enters into the aforementioned exclusivity clauses and makes the related cash payments to the various broadcast networks. See Exhibit 1 and Appendix IV.
38. The number of broadcast events and their associated revenues declined in 2015 and 2016, when compared to 2014, as presented in Exhibit 1. As I stated above, the relationship between Golden Boy and the broadcast media (HBO, Showtime, FOX, among others), and Golden Boy's ability to promote successful events requires, among other things, championship caliber boxers²¹ and network timeslot availability.²²
39. Appendices IV and V reflect both the Haymon and Golden Boy media contracts during 2014, 2015, and through June 30, 2016. These appendices demonstrate both the decrease in Golden Boy's access to broadcast media for potential promotion of championship caliber events and the results of Haymon's significant investment in network and cable broadcast timeslots.
40. Consistent with the decline in TV Revenue is a decline in both the number of championship caliber boxing events and the number of Golden Boy promoted championship caliber boxers. See Exhibit 1.

²⁰ See Appendices IV and V.

²¹ As defined in the Kneuper Report, the base criteria for championship caliber boxers are those with a US based manager or promoter, as well as a television appearance within the preceding eighteen months and a current period top ten ranking in any of the fourteen weight classes, additionally including any former televised world champions within the last eighteen months.

²² The Shaw Report at pages 5 and 10 describes the promoters' requirement for both product and platform.

41. During this same time period Haymon entered into exclusive contracts with boxers, which included control over promotion activities, as well as the management of the boxers. I have reviewed all of the contracts made available to me in this matter, as summarized below.

42. Golden Boy's data regarding its boxers under promotional contracts indicate that there are no Haymon-managed or Haymon-advised boxers under contract with Golden Boy during 2015 and 2016.
43. Additionally, when considering Golden Boy's boxing operations from periods 2012 through 2014, the data supports Golden Boy's ability to perform successfully in the boxing promotions market.

C. From the end of 2014 through January 2016, Haymon spends a significant portion of the $ [REDACTED] capital investment received from MGH on "Television Costs," "Fighter Costs," and "On-air Broadcast Fees."

44. Presented in the Haymon Holdings, Inc. financial statements as of December 31, 2014, the total cash [REDACTED] as of January 31, 2016. See Exhibit 2.

45. [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]

46. [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]

47. As I discuss in Section B above, these Haymon activities ("Television Costs," "Fighter Costs," and "On-air Broadcast Fees") correspond to the decline in Golden Boy's operating performance.

D. Assuming Haymon continues to block access to television broadcasters and fighters, Golden Boy's lost profits attributable to Haymon's alleged anticompetitive practices, measured by the decline in Golden Boy's income from boxing operations, are estimated to be $ [REDACTED]. In the event that Haymon is forced to, either by court order or by market forces, or otherwise voluntarily lifts restrictions on boxers and television networks, such that Golden Boy is able to begin recovering, Golden Boy's lost profits are estimated to be in a range of $ [REDACTED].

48. In considering damages in this matter, I have employed the following methodology:

- a. I have assumed in constructing a comparative but-for analysis that Haymon functions only as a manager during 2015 through June 30, 2016 (historical damage period). Additionally, I have incorporated this assumption into my analysis of damages subsequent to June 30, 2016.
- b. I obtained a list of all boxers under contract to Golden Boy during 2014, 2015, and through June 30, 2016.
 - i. Based on the criteria as outlined in the Kneuper Report, I sort these lists into two categories, championship caliber boxer and all others.
- c. I analyzed all revenue and expenses associated with each event promoted by Golden Boy from January 1, 2014 through June 30, 2016. See Exhibit 3 and Appendix III.
 - i. Each event contains a specific number of bouts. The total event revenues are listed by category, and those categories were allocated to specific boxers based on that individual boxers' TV appearance and each boxers' specific purse.
 - ii. The expenses for each event were also allocated to individual boxers based on TV appearances and purse.
 - iii. The resulting analysis computes a Golden Boy promoted income from boxing operations per event, also subdivided by championship caliber boxer.

- d. From the data analyzed in the preceding paragraph I present the year-over-year decline in the Golden Boy income from boxing operations (including Golden Boy promoted championship caliber broadcast television events and associated revenues). See Exhibit 3.
- e. I compare the 2014 income from boxing operations to the income from boxing operations from boxing from 2015 and June 30, 2016. See Exhibit 4.
- f. The difference in income from boxing operations earned in 2014 and the income from boxing operations earned in 2015 through June 30, 2016, adjusted for industry growth, is historical damages as reflected in Exhibit 5.
- g. For purposes of future damages and the possibility of Golden Boy recovering during some time period subsequent to June 30, 2016, I have presented a range of recovery assumptions and therefore a range of future damages as well as total damages. One recovery assumption is that Haymon continues his anticompetitive conduct and Golden Boy is unable to recover its lost profits. In the event that Haymon ceases his anticompetitive conduct, either voluntarily or by virtue of market forces or court order, I assume recovery periods which are generally within the current and extension periods of the Haymon TV contracts. See Exhibit 5 and Appendix IV.

²³ Settlement and Release Agreement, dated as of August 5, 2014 and executed December 19, 2014 by and among Golden Boy and Haymon (GBP016201).

50. In the but-for world, Haymon is operating only as a manager facing the entire market of boxing promoters. That market for boxing promotions would continue to include Golden Boy, and as various boxers within the promotions market rise or change in the various rankings, or for other reasons, such as an increase in popularity, there would be interaction between Haymon as a manager and all members of the boxing promotions market, including Golden Boy.²⁴

51. Also, in the but-for world, Golden Boy would not lack the availability of traditional broadcast networks that were actually subject to Haymon's exclusive contract relations.

E. I have considered and rejected as highly unlikely the hypothetical but-for analysis where Haymon acts only as a promoter.

52. Haymon as a promoter-only market participant has been considered as an unlikely possibility. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

■ In conducting my damage analysis, I have reviewed the financial and other promotional details, including each individual fighter and their respective opponents, for every event promoted by Golden Boy from 2014 through June 30, 2016. I have also reviewed a redacted version of the settlement between "Top Rank," who, according to <http://www.toprank.com/about>, bills themselves as the country's premiere boxing promotions company, and Haymon, which, among other things, required Haymon's best efforts in sending an irrevocable waiver of "all rights and benefits under each such Haymon Exclusivity Provision." See also, Shaw Report e.g., at pages 7 – 8.

²⁵ [REDACTED]

VI. CONCLUSION

53. Based on my analysis, in the event that Haymon continues his anticompetitive conduct, including blocking Golden Boy and other promoters from television networks, I estimate Golden Boy's damages to be $ [REDACTED]. This conclusion assumes that Haymon's anticompetitive conduct has permanently affected Golden Boy's ability to generate profits from its boxing promotions operations.
54. In the event that Haymon ceases his anticompetitive conduct, either voluntarily or by court order or market forces, I estimate Golden Boy's damages to be in a range of $ [REDACTED]. This conclusion assumes that Golden Boy will recover back to a state of normalcy sometime between the end of 2017 and the end of 2018. To the extent that recovery period takes longer, Golden Boy's damages would be greater.

statements for the twelve month periods ending December 31, 2012, 2013, and 2014, and the unaudited consolidated financial statements for the twelve month period ending December 31, 2015 and the interim six month period ending June 30, 2016 to ensure the QuickBooks spreadsheets I obtained include the boxing related income and expenses for the periods ended December 31, 2014, December 31, 2015 and the six months ended June 30, 2016.

[REDACTED] I requested and received additional detail on boxing show income to quantify and understand the different types of revenue Golden Boy receives for promoting each of its fights.

[REDACTED] I requested and received additional detail on fighter costs to quantify and understand the fighters that Golden Boy paid for participating in each of its fights.

7. Based on discussions with Golden Boy personnel, I understand that not all fights Golden Boy promotes are televised. Further, I understand that in many cases only certain fights for each event are televised. I requested and received additional detail on which fights within each event were televised for the periods ending December 31, 2014 and December 31, 2015 and for the six month period ending June 30, 2016.

8. Using the data provided by Golden Boy in paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7 above, I analyzed each event during 2014, 2015 and the first six months of 2016. For each event, I allocated income and expenses to each fighter that participated in each event. For each event, I allocated total TV related income and expenses to each fighter that participated in a televised fight (“TV fighter”) based on the amount each TV fighter was paid.⁷ I allocated all other income and expenses to each fighter based on the amounts each fighter was paid.

9. After performing the analysis detailed in paragraph 8 above, I compiled a fighter-by-fighter, event-by-event income and expense analysis for the periods ending December 31, 2014 and December 31, 2015 and for the six months ending June 30, 2016. The results of this analysis are used in quantifying my opinions on damages.

⁷ Said differently, fighters that participated in fights that were not televised were not allocated TV income or expenses.
